Recently, I supported the passage of the Troop Readiness, Veterans' Health, and

As the war in Iraq enters its fifth year, we are faced with very tough decisions and

I have always rejected arbitrary or irresponsible timelines that would tie the hands

The bill also calls for the Iraqis to forge the political compromises all of our general

Moreover, I cannot overstate my concerns about the state of our military readiness

Most South Dakotans aren't satisfied with the progress we've been seeing in Iraq,

While there are no perfect options remaining, this is the most responsible course of
